The procession moves promptly at 1 p. m. Visiting firemen from Baltimore and Washington will be placed in line at the intersection of King and Fairfax streets upon their arrival by boat. DAVID A. WINDSOR, Chief Marshal.

DEATH OF MR. SAMUEL H. JANNEY.—A dispatch from Rome, N. Y., this morning, announces the death there, about 6:50 o'clock, of Mr. Samuel Hopkins Janney, who has been in Rome for some time under treatment for a cancer, which made its appearance on his hip about six months since and speedily spreading terminated his life. Mr. Janney was in the 83d year of his age and was one of our most highly respected citizens, being noted for his integrity, and possessing the esteem of all who knew him on account of his many excellent qualities of head and heart. He had occupied many positions of honor and trust and always performed the duties allotted to him with ability and fidelity. Prior to the late war Mr. Janney held a government position in the Treasury department for nineteen years. To within a few months past he had engaged in the active pursuits of life and was ever foremost in everything looking to the promotion of his fellow citizens. His hand was always open to the relief of the poor, or afflicted, and few men will be more generally missed. In latter years he had been sorely afflicted by the loss of his wife and children and with his own bodily ailments, but he bore all with the fortitude that becomes a man. The remains will reach here to-morrow evening at 6:30 o'clock and the funeral will take place on Wednesday at 3 o'clock p. m.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Wm. C. Yeaton, Jr., formerly of this city, and Miss Bettie Chancellor, daughter of W. A. Chancellor, esq., are to be married to-morrow evening at the residence of the bride's father, in Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mr. Edward P. Turner, of "The Plains," Fauquier county, has been appointed a laborer in the Hydrographic Office, in Washington, at $500 per annum.

Rev. Dr. C. C. Bittling, of Philadelphia, formerly of this city, has been re-elected Supreme Commander of the Supreme Lodge of the order of the Golden Chain. The Supreme Lodge, which has been in session in Baltimore, has adjourned.

The Richmond Times says: "Mr. H. O. Williams, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, has returned from his work in Alexandria. He was presented with a handsome watch by a number of friends. They watched his career with interest and then watched him out of the city."

Mr. D. A. Curtis, secretary of the Arrow Steamship Company, is in the city to day on his way to Georgia, where he goes to look after the marble to be used in tiling the deck of the ship which his company proposes building here.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Cleveland, with Miss Van Vechten, drove out to Mrs. Folsom's reception and was very pleased at meeting Miss Mildred Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee's daughter, whom Mr. W. W. Corcoran had gallantly escorted. Mrs. Cleveland found the party so charming that though she was due at the White House she remained to luncheon with her mother, Miss Lee, Mr. Corcoran, and Miss Van Vechten. About 3 the four drove into Washington in company.

EX-GOVERNOR CAMERON.—Ex-Governor Cameron, who, as stated in Saturday's GAZETTE, was in Washington a day or two last week, has gone to New York. While in Washington he had consultations with a number of Virginia republicans with reference to the approaching political campaign in Virginia. He and General Mahone seem wider apart than ever. It is understood that the ex-Governor intends to take an active part in the campaign and that he will antagonize any leadership by Gen. Mahone, and oppose the election of the General to the Senate in case the republicans carry the legislature. Among the reports is one to the effect that mutual friends of the two gentlemen are trying to effect a reconciliation between them. Gov. Cameron is opposed to any change of front on the debt question by the republican party, and in his opinion its true and best policy is to stick unflinchingly to the Riddleberger settlement. He expressed the opinion that the democratic party of Virginia is hopelessly demoralized and can not be rallied.

WASHINGTON INVESTMENTS.—Mr. Thomas W. Matthews, of Warrenton, has purchased from William D. Allen for $12,000 500 all of the block in Washington bounded by Virginia avenue and C and Twentieth streets northwest; and also the south twenty-six feet front on Tenth street, between South Carolina avenue and C street southeast. Gen. Wm. H. Payne, of Warrenton, has purchased all of block in Washington bounded by Maryland avenue and E, Thirteenth and Thirteen-and-a-half streets southeast. The price paid was $28,100.

To-morrow is known as Shrove Tuesday, or Pancake Day.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was rainy till about one o'clock. The Mayor to-day held a long session of his court and disposed of the following cases:

Eli Butler, charged with breaking into the store of Mr. J. P. Rice, was released for want of evidence.

Ed. Girtz, a witness in the above case, was sent to jail for perjury.

Margie Pendleton, Denis Potter and May Allen, all colored, arrested by Officers Martin and Arnold, for fighting, were fined $2, $10 and $3, respectively, and Fanny Grandison, arrested on the same charge, was released.

A young man, arrested by Officers Lawler and Hayes, charged with shooting a companion, was released for trial on Thursday.

Chinaman Kahoe, arrested by Lt. Smith for trespassing on J. C. Pean, was released on condition of keeping off the latter's premises.

Sam Lamb, arrested by Officers Davis and Grady, for an assault on Thomas Rowland, was locked up, and Rowland, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged. In this affair Lamb drew a knife on Rowland, when the latter struck him and broke his jaw bone.

Two young men, arrested by Officers Bettice and Hayes, for assaults on companions, were released on the withdrawal of the warrants and the payment of costs.

James Commander and Al. Lucas, both colored, arrested by Officers Bontz and Martin, for disorderly conduct, were fined $2 each.

FUNERALS.—The remains of Mrs. Valentine Baker were brought here yesterday morning from her late home in Fairfax county and taken to Georgetown where they were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery by the side of her husband, who had preceded her to the grave but one week.

The funeral of Mrs. John G. Phillips, who died on Friday last, took place from her late home on Lee street yesterday evening and was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Nourse and the remains were interred in Union cemetery.

The funeral of Mr. William Bellomy, who died in Culpeper on Friday night from the effects of injuries received by being run over by a train of cars at that place a short time since, took place from the home of his father on Queen street yesterday evening. The remains were followed to the burial ground by a large number of friends, including many employees of the Midland railroad. Rev. H. Suter, of Christ Church, conducted the services.

PARADE NOTES.—On account of the muddy condition of the streets the route of procession has been changed, as will be seen by the official programme published elsewhere. The procession will move at 1 o'clock.

The Baltimore and Washington firemen will reach here from the latter city at one o'clock and proceed at once to the place assigned them in line.

The visitors will be entertained at the vacant store on the corner of King and Fairfax streets.

The following is the list of aides and marshals who will take part in the parade:

D. A. Windsor, chief marshal; J. P. Agnew, W. B. Smoot and Geo. Uhler aides.

Marshals—John B. Hooe, J. E. Johnston, John G. Beckham, Geo. R. Hill, Frank Martin, Richard Wattles, A. E. Smoot, R. Brown, O. F. Carter, Edward McWilliams, R. E. Janney, R. D. Catts, V. M. Power, J. M. Gibbs, Henry McWilliams, Geo. Fowle, J. H. Catts, B. F. Beattie, Frank Carlin, Everett Triplett, Thomas Waters, and others.

THE A. L. I. FAIR was crowded with patrons on Saturday night last and every body had a good time. The attractions increased nightly, and among those for to-night will be a drill by the A. L. I. and music by the Old Stonewall Brigade Band, of Staunton. St. John's Cadets will also be present.

Among the most liberal patrons of the fair are the florists, whose beautiful offerings have adorned the stand, and likewise proved profitable to the ladies thereat. Mr. Robinson has sent, daily, boxes of beautiful, fresh bouquets, and Mr. Slater and others have given liberally, with open hands and generous hearts.

The A. L. I. have received from Mr. H. Walker, of Rectortown, $5, through Messrs. Jamieson & Cochran.

PROPERTY FOR SALE.—As will be seen by their advertisement, Messrs. Harlow & Caton, real estate agents and brokers, offer for sale numbers of houses and lots in this city. The property is of every description, from four-story brick dwellings to small frame structures. By a perusal of their list it will be seen that many desirable residences on Duke, Prince and other streets are for sale, together with numbers of eligibly situated building lots. Those wanting to invest in real estate should avail themselves of this opportunity while prices are low, as houses and lots hereabouts will undoubtedly advance perceptibly in price in a few months. These gentlemen also have for sale several fine farms in Alexandria, Fairfax, Prince William and Fauquier counties.

AN ELOPEMENT.—A Washington paper says: "A few days ago colored society was startled by the announcement that Cecelia Beckley, daughter of Rozier Beckley, a well-known Virginia politician, had eloped with Rev. John Plunket, of Virginia. The girl is a school teacher, and is very light, while the preacher is black as coal and by no means prepossessing in appearance. The color of the groom was too much for the mother, so she followed on to Fairfax county, where she captured her daughter and brought her back to Washington. It is said that when the newly-married preacher found that his unwilling mother-in-law had taken his bride home he nearly lost his religion."

FAIRFAX COUNTY ITEMS.—It is estimated that four-fifths of the State taxes of 1885, which will be paid in the spring, will be paid in coupons in Fairfax county.

Miss Ida Lacy, daughter of Mr. Bev. Lacy, of Bailey's Cross Roads, eloped on Thursday with J. Feely Stearns, of Alexandria county. The couple went to Washington and were married. Miss Lacy's parents objected to Stearns, and the young couple concluded to veto all objections.

The latest census of democratic candidates for the county and district offices gives 201, with Pohick to hear from.

CASE CONTINUED.—J. W. Baker, indicted for stealing a horse from Chatham's livery stable last summer, was brought in to the Corporation Court to day for trial. The jury had taken their seats in the box and the case was ready for a hearing, when the prisoner was taken suddenly ill and had to be removed from the room, thus necessitating the continuance of the case. It was said that the jury was a bad one for horse thieves and that Baker, realizing that fact, concluded that a postponement would be the best thing for him, so he swallowed a piece of tobacco which worked like a charm.

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR.—Gov. Lee on Saturday pardoned Albert Lyles, of this city. Young Lyles was sent for forgery, and his time would have expired in July next. The pardon was granted for what were deemed good and sufficient reasons, which were set out in a petition sent from this city and signed by a number of citizens.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding.—Henry Jackson vs. V. M. Ry. Co.; appeal from a magistrate; case set for the first day of March term.

Com. vs. J. W. Baker, horse stealing; prisoner arraigned, pleaded not guilty and, on his motion, trial postponed till April term next.

G. I. Seaton vs. G. W. Bryant, decree of reference to J. K. M. Norton, comm'r.

Court adjourned till Wednesday next for the signing of the minutes only.

HOLIDAY.—To-morrow being the Twenty-second of February will be observed as a holiday in this city. The banks and the government and city offices will be closed, the public and private schools will give holiday, there will be no meeting of the Commercial Exchange and the postoffice will observe Sunday hours. Many of the stores will close after the morning hour, in order to give all an opportunity of either taking part in or witnessing the parade.

SHOT.—During a romp on Saturday night last in the store of Mr. Owen Nugent, on upper King street, Mr. Nugent's son, Owen, was shot in the hand with a pistol by Mr. Edward McGraw. The ball entered in the fleshy part of the hand, between the thumb and fore-finger, and was extracted near the wrist by Dr. Jones. Mr. McGraw was arrested, but the case was continued till Thursday next. Both of the young men say the shooting was accidental.

DEAD.—Mr. Patrick Keegan, whose illness has been recently mentioned, died at his home, on upper Duke street, Saturday night, of consumption. Mr. Keegan came to this city from New York during the war, and was employed by the various companies operating the railroad between this city and Washington till a few years ago, when he lost his position. His funeral will take place to-morrow evening at five o'clock.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There will be a meeting of the City Council to-night at 7:30, called by the Mayor at the request of the Parade Committee.

Mr. Lee Humphries has rented the Maryland ferry slip, and it is earnestly hoped that the "Virginia" may by some means soon be placed on the old line.

Dredge "No. 2," one of the pump dredges which has been engaged on the Washington flats work, was towed to the ship yard here to-day and hauled out on the ways for caulking.

Two young men got into a row yesterday evening in an alley bounded by Lee, Prince, King and Union streets, in which one was bruised about the face. The case was taken to the Mayor's office, but afterwards withdrawn.

Virgie, the bright little three-year-old daughter of Mr. J. W. H. Palmer, died of membranous croup last night. Every effort was made to relieve the little sufferer, even to the insertion of a tube into her throat, but all proved ineffectual.

Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days of the season, so far as the weather was concerned, which had the effect of keeping many persons in doors who would otherwise have attended the churches. There was a shower of rain about 11 o'clock which was followed by a snow storm which again turned into rain.

OPERA HOUSE.—Edwin R. Lang's company of comedy comedians appear at the Opera House to-night in the latest comedy success, entitled "Scheming," in which all the latest and most popular songs are introduced. The Norfolk Virginian says: "Mr. Edwin R. Lang's company did another good business last night. The presentation of 'Scheming' demonstrated that this is indeed in truth a combination of comedy artists—vastly superior to any of its predecessors."

Mr. Chas. Thornton, a brilliant young actor and a native of Fairfax county will appear at the Opera House to-morrow and Wednesday nights in the great melo-drama, "Tried for Treason." The play is not as many might suppose from its title, devoted to warlike deeds and battle efforts, but is in reality one of the most beautiful domestic dramas ever written; the time and circumstances attending its action being of the time of the Revolutionary War. This company carry and will use all the beautiful and historic scenery, costumes, &c., necessary to the proper presentation of the drama.

For weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, consumption, night-sweats and all lingering coughs, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Superior to cod liver oil. By druggists.
